

liebe Indigo: the logline of a documentary film

A documentary portrait of the performer Halka Třešňáková, presented on the background of time and family events. A story about the theatre, emigration and faith, recorded in her personal diary and translated into the documentary film "liebe Indigo".